[REDACTED] WALT DISNEY WORLD, Orlando, Florida, advised that on 7/17/89, a white male and a white female identified themselves to maintenance employees at WALT DISNEY WORLD, by display of a badge and some type of credentials, as "FBI investigators". These individuals were operating a red OLDSMOBILE with an ALAMO rental car sticker on the bumper. The vehicle was observed driving through the parking lot, noting license plates' numbers of vehicles parked in the lot.

By memorandum, dated 7/18/89, [REDACTED] provided statements obtained from the witnesses of their observations, which are attached.

b6
b7C

It is recommended that a 47C-NEW be opened and assigned to conduct a limited investigation, including, but not limited to, interviews of employees having contact with the alleged FBI investigators.

These statements are not what I was hoping to get; everything except the license plates. We checked with the Postal people but no one from that office was in our area.

Our people are watching for such a car, if they should ever return.

Was walking across parking lot at MK YARD when I looked over at a Red Oldsmobile Car that was parked behind van in front of trailer. As I looked over, there was a man and woman sitting in the car looking at me. The man was heavy set with dark curly hair - almost shoulder length. The woman was sitting behind drivers seat. As the boss pulled out, she followed him in the car. Car had Alamo sticker. The car drove around our parking lot and the painters parking lot just looking. They were pointing towards the woods as they were driving around. The plate was from Dade County with a Alamo sticker on back left bumper. Short antenna on rear window, and antenna on back bumper.

I was working in the Landscaping trailer at M.K. Yard, I am the [redacted] A woman came to the door and asked to use the phone, but our phone was not working. As she left, my boss stated she was parked behind our trailer and when he questioned why they were parked out there they showed him a badge stating FBI. As soon as my boss left in his truck, she followed him out of MK Yard. The woman was about 5'4" tall and weighed about 135 lbs. She had dirty blonde hair, short length. She wore light colored shorts and sleeveless top. At first I thought she was someone looking for work. She didn't say anything except she asked to use phone. She was driving a small red car and she had someone in the front as I seen her pull out of the MK yard.

I am the [REDACTED] for BVCC Landscaping and my office trailer is at MK YARD. As I pulled in the yard, I seen a Red 2 door Oldsmobile with Alamo Rental Tags parked behind my van in front of Office trailer. I went over to see if I could help them or what they wanted, and the woman flipped out a book and badge, stating they were FBI Investigators. There was a man in the front seat with her. Both people were in there late 20's or early 30's. The woman came into office after I entered to use the phone. Our phone was disconnected. They went through parking lot checking out auto tags. The woman was short, light colored hair, wearing shorts and short sleeve shirt. The man was dark haired, heavy set. The man never got out of the car, only the woman.

Memorandum

To : SAC, TAMPA (47C-TP-20058) (ORA) (C) Date 10/11/89

From : SA [redacted]

Subject: UNSUBS;
IMPERSONATION OF FBI AGENTS;
WALT DISNEY WORLD,
ORLANDO, FLORIDA;
JUNE 17, 1989;
IMPERSONATION - C
(OO:TP)

Re opening memo from SA [redacted] to SAC, Tampa, dated 7/28/89.

Following the impersonation incident as described in the reference, the statements of the involved WALT DISNEY WORLD (WDW) Maintenance employees were reviewed for content. Aside from the fact that the unsubs identified themselves as FBI investigators, the statements contained no substantial information that would constitute a viable lead. Aside from noting license plate numbers of vehicles parked in the lot, the unsubs did not demand or obtain anything of value.

On 9/22/89, Investigator [redacted] WDW, was contacted. [redacted] advised that there have been no further incidents involving these individuals, or any other similar impersonation incidents.

Also on 9/22/89, [redacted] Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA), was contacted. He advised that his office would most likely decline prosecution in a matter such as this.

It is recommended that this matter be closed administratively.
